

Volunteers needed

MADD (Make a Direct Difference) Movies are currently producing a documentary on the history of CND and the anti-nuclear movement.

Production Assistants

CND and MADD Movies are looking for two volunteers willing to commit at least two days per week towards assisting with the production of this film. This position is ideal for students wishing to gain experience in film making.

S/he is responsible for assisting the film-makers in all the production tasks required to complete this project including:

- Organising archived resources
- Transcribing interviews
- Distributing leaflets and organising mail-outs
- Providing general support to the film-makers
- Being involved in all levels of the film making process

Post Production Assistants

S/he is responsible for assisting the film-makers in all the production tasks required to complete this project including:

- Editing on Premiere Pro
- Archive Research
- Dubbing
- Animation (using After Effects)

CND will cover volunteers travel and lunch expenses. If you would like to apply, please email your CV to davinder@cnduk.org or post it to:

CND, 162 Holloway Road, London, N7 8DQ